About Robin ...

Robin has been dancing, teaching and competing in dance as well as judging nationally and regionally for over 25 years. For the past 13 years he has concentrated exclusively on West Coast Swing, studying with only the very best in the business. Among his accomplishments are numerous 1st Place titles and many top 5 placements at events all across the nation including a 3rd place finish at the prestigious US Open Swing Dance Championships in 2003. He currently competes at the All Star/Invitational and Champions Level. Robin was a WAG Award finalist for 2011, by popular vote placing him among the top male WCS instructors in the country!

Robin is certified under Michael Kiehm's IPDIA at the Instructor/Examiner level (Highest Level) and is also affiliated with Skippy Blair's GSDTA. Never satisfied that what he already knows is enough, he works tirelessly to keep up with current trends and techniques in the global west coast swing community. He has won more top teacher awards than can be noted. With a diverse professional background in music, dance and martial arts. Robin has a unique understanding of body movement and how it relates to music and he takes great pride in his ability to improve the overall level of West Coast Swing wherever his travels take him.

A serious teacher for serious students Robin teaches full time and would love to share his vast knowledge of and passion for west coast swing with you!
