Jennifer Lyons Workshops

CSDS hosted Jennifer this June for a weekend of amazing workshops, privates, and great social dancing. Thirty to forty people attended each of the four workshops including some faces we haven't seen in a while, and some we had never seen. All were welcome! We learned some new moves, some improvements to our frame and carriage, and had a little fun doing it. Dinner was catered by Consuming Passions (Sarah Bender). The food was excellent and the company unparalleled. Cathleen and Adela provided snacks for us to munch on during the day. No one got low blood sugar...

The dance was also well attended with at least 85 people filling the dance floor. Our DJ for the night was Ken Roesel who filled the GOC with another evening of great tunes. A brave few danced through their exhaustion all the way to midnight to close the place down!

The Rhodes family worked the door for CSDS, greeting and helping everyone get settled in. 'Thanks' to them. Jennifer's personal friend Gloria Salvetti hosted her during the weekend, and joined us for the dancing fun.

Jennifer gave thirteen privates over the weekend, and everyone said they were absolutely fabulous. Larry Saunders organized the privates and noted that his own was "awesome. I understand how she got the nickname "Dr. Dance."

Fun!

Unmovable object, unstoppable force.

Fun!

Change ment!

Fun!

Hey, wait, this is Kristin schtick! I want my invisible grocery bag back.

Fun!

When she did "the robot," Kevin began to pay attention.

Swing Swap
has moved! Oh noes! But just for the summer.

Swing Swap will be taking place at CATEC, Charlottesville-Albemarle Technological Center at 1000 East Rio Road. C'ville Public Access Television will be providing us a space until Swing returns to Murray in the fall. The newsletter staff will continue to use this disturbed font until the craziness is over.
